(e) sub-article (11) thereof shall be deleted.

Addition of new article 7A to the principal Act.

7. Immediately after article 7 of the principal Act, there shall be added the following new article:

"Subsequent application after final decision.

7A. (1) A person who has applied for asylum may make a subsequent application after a final decision to the Commissioner for Refugees:

Provided that such application shall only be considered on the presentation of new elements or findings, relating to the examination of whether the applicant qualifies as a refugee, and of which the applicant could not have been aware or which he could not have submitted.

(2) The person submitting a subsequent application shall:

(a) indicate facts and provide evidence which justify this procedure; and

(b) submit such new information within fifteen days from the day on which the applicant obtained such information.

(3) The examination may be conducted on the sole basis of written submissions and the applicant is to be informed of the outcome of the examination and of his right for an appeal."

8. For Parts III, IV and V (and articles 8 to 18A therein) of the principal Act, there shall be substituted the following:

Substitution of articles 8 to 18A of the principal Act.

"Part IV
Refugee Status
and Subsidiary Protection Status
I - Refugee Status

Qualification for refugee status.

8. (1) A person may apply to the Commissioner, in the prescribed form, and shall be granted refugee protection, where it is established that he faces a well-founded fear of persecution in his country of origin or habitual residence in terms of the Convention.

(2) A well-founded fear of persecution may be based on events which have taken place after applicant has left his country of origin or activities engaged in by applicant since leaving the country of origin, except when based on circumstances which the applicant has created by his own decision since leaving the country of origin.

(3) If the Commissioner recommends the acceptance of the application, the Minister shall make a declaration that applicant is eligible for refugee status, or appeal against such recommendation.

Cessation of qualification
for refugee status.

9. (1) A person shall cease to possess refugee status if he -

(a) has voluntarily re-availed himself of the protection of the country of his or her nationality, or, having lost his nationality, has voluntarily re-acquired it; or

(b) has acquired a new nationality and enjoys the protection of the country of his new nationality; or

(c) has voluntarily re-established himself in the country which he left or outside which he remained owing to fear of persecution; or

(d) can no longer, because the circumstances in connection with which he has been recognised as a refugee have ceased to exist, continue to refuse to avail himself of the protection of the country of his nationality; or

(e) is a person who has no nationality and, because the circumstances in connection with which he has been recognised as a refugee have ceased to exist, is able to return to the country of his former habitual residence:

Provided that in paragraphs (d) and (e), regard shall be had as to whether the change of circumstances is of such a significant and non-temporary nature that the refugee's fear of persecution can no longer be regarded as well-founded.

(2) A person who is notified that he has ceased to possess refugee status shall be entitled to appeal against such decision to the Board within fifteen days of such notification and the provisions of article 7 shall mutatis mutandis apply to such appeal. The decision of the Board shall be final.

Revocation or refusal to renew refugee status.

10. (1) The Minister shall revoke a declaration of refugee status if he is satisfied, after due investigation, that a person to whom a declaration has been given has been erroneously recognized as a refugee on an application which contains any materially incorrect or false information, or was so recognized owing to fraud, forgery, false or misleading representation of a material or substantial nature in relation to the application:

Provided that he shall be informed in writing that his qualification for refugee status is being reconsidered, is given reasons for such reconsideration and is given the opportunity to submit, in a personal interview, reasons as to why his refugee status should not be withdrawn.

(2) The Minister may revoke or refuse to renew the protection granted to a refugee when:

(a) there are reasonable grounds for regarding him as a danger to the security of Malta;

(b) having been convicted by a final judgment of a particularly serious crime, he constitutes a danger to the community of Malta.

(3) A person, in whose regard the Minister has revoked or refused to renew a declaration under sub-articles (1) or (2), shall be entitled to appeal against the revocation to the Board within seven days of the notification of the revocation to him, and the provisions of article 7 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to such appeal.

Expulsion.

11. (1) The Minister may order the expulsion from Malta of any refugee or persons granted subsidiary protection on grounds of national security or public order, and pending such expulsion such person shall be held in custody.

(2) The provisions of article 7 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to expulsion orders issued under this article.

(3) Any refugee to whom this article applies shall be allowed a reasonable period of time within which to seek legal admission into another country.

Exclusion.

12. (1) A third country national or a stateless person is excluded from being a refugee if:

(a) he falls within the scope of Article 1D of the Convention, relating to protection or assistance from organs or agencies of the United Nations other than the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees. When such protection or assistance has ceased for any reason, without the position of such persons being definitely settled in accordance with the relevant resolutions adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations, such persons shall ipso facto be entitled to the benefits of this Act; or

(b) he is recognised by the competent authorities of the country in which he has taken residence as having the rights and obligations which are attached to the possession of the nationality of that country, or equivalent rights and obligations.

(2) A third country national or a stateless person is also excluded from being a refugee where there are serious reasons for considering that:

(a) he has committed a crime against peace, a war crime, or a crime against humanity, as defined in the international instruments drawn up to make provision in respect of such crimes; or

(b) he has committed a serious non-political crime outside the country of refuge, including particularly cruel actions even if committed with an allegedly political objective, prior to his admission as a refugee; or

(c) he has been guilty of acts contrary to the purposes and principles of the United Nations as set out in the Preamble and Articles 1 and 2 of the Charter of the United Nations.

(3) Sub-article (2) applies to persons who instigate or otherwise participate in the commission of the crimes or acts mentioned therein.

II - Non-refoulement, resettlement and assistance

Prohibition of refoulement.

13. (1) A person shall not be expelled from Malta or returned in any manner whatsoever to the frontiers of territories where the life or freedom of that person would be threatened on account of his race, religion, nationality, membership of a particular social group or political opinion.

(2) The provisions of sub-article (1) shall not apply to a refugee or a person enjoying subsidiary protection in respect of whom there are reasonable grounds for regarding him as a danger to the security of Malta, or who, having been convicted by a final judgment of a particularly serious crime, constitutes a danger to the community.

Resettlement. 14. The Minister may, at the written request of an applicant, or of a recognized refugee or of a person enjoying subsidiary protection, and, where necessary, with the assistance of the High Commissioner, facilitate the resettlement of such person to another country and do all that is required for the purpose.

Assistance. 15. The Commissioner shall ensure as far as possible that the application of this Act is in conformity with accepted international practice, and for this purpose may seek the assistance of the High Commissioner or of any national or international non-governmental body concerned with refugee matters.

III - Subsidiary Protection Status

Qualification for subsidiary protection status. 16. (1) Upon the recommendation of the Commissioner of Refugees, the Minister may declare that subsidiary protection status be granted to an asylum seeker whose application has been dismissed, where his forcible return to his country of origin or country of habitual residence would constitute a real risk of violation of Article 2 or Article 3 of the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms indicated in the European Convention Act or be a serious threat to a civilian's life or person by reason of indiscriminate violence in situations of international or internal armed conflict:

Cap. 319.

Provided that a third country national or a stateless person is excluded from being eligible for subsidiary protection where there are serious reasons for considering that:

- (a) he has committed a crime against peace, a war crime, or a crime against humanity, as defined in the international instruments drawn up to make provision in respect of such crimes or is a person who instigates or otherwise participates in the commission of such crimes; or

(b) he has committed a serious crime; or

(c) he has been guilty of acts contrary to the purposes and principles of the United Nations as set out in the Preamble and Articles 1 and 2 of the Charter of the United Nations; or

(d) he constitutes a danger to the community or to the security of Malta:

Provided further that paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) shall also apply to persons who instigate or otherwise participate in the commission of the crimes or acts mentioned therein:

Provided also that the decision concerning the granting of subsidiary protection shall be given in conjunction with the dismissal ruling relating to the application for refugee status.

(2) The Refugee Commissioner may exclude a third country national or a stateless person from being eligible for subsidiary protection if applicant, prior to his admission to Malta, has committed one or more crimes, outside the scope of sub-article (1), which would be punishable by imprisonment had they been committed in Malta and if applicant left his country of origin solely in order to avoid sanctions resulting from these crimes.

Actors of real risk or serious threat.

Cap. 319.

17. The following may be considered as actors of real risk of violation of Article 2 or Article 3 of the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, as indicated in the European Convention Act, or may be a serious threat to a civilian's life or person by reason of indiscriminate violence in situations of international or internal armed conflict:

(a) the State;

(b) parties or organizations controlling the State or a substantial part of the territory of the State;

(c) non-State actors, if it can be demonstrated that the actors mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b), including international organizations, are unable or unwilling to provide protection against the acts mentioned in article 16(1).

Actors of protection.

18. (1) Protection may be provided by:

(a) the State; or

(b) parties or organizations, including international organizations, controlling the State or a substantial part of the territory of the State.

(2) Protection is provided when the entities mentioned in sub-article (1) take reasonable steps to prevent the acts mentioned in article 16(1) by operating an effective legal system for the detection, prosecution and punishment of acts constituting persecution or serious harm, and the applicant has access to such protection.

Internal protection.

19. (1) As part of the assessment of the application for international protection, the Refugee Commissioner may determine that the applicant is not in need of international protection if in a part of the country of origin there is no well-founded fear of being subject to the acts mentioned in article 16(1) and the applicant is reasonably expected to stay in that part of the country.

(2) Sub-article (1) may apply notwithstanding any obstacle or difficulty which the applicant may have to return to his country of origin.

Cessation of qualification of subsidiary protection status.

20. Subsidiary protection shall cease if the Minister is satisfied, after consulting the Commissioner, that the circumstances which led to the granting of subsidiary protection status have ceased to exist or have changed to such a degree that protection is no longer required:

Provided that regard shall be had as to whether the change of circumstances is of such a significant and non-temporary nature that the person eligible for subsidiary protection no longer faces a real risk of serious harm.

Revocation or refusal to renew subsidiary protection status.

21. The Minister shall revoke or refuse to renew the subsidiary protection status of a third country national or a stateless person if:

(a) after having been granted subsidiary protection status, that person should have been or is excluded from being eligible for subsidiary protection in accordance with article 16(1); or

(b) that person's misrepresentation or omission of facts, including the use of false documents, were decisive for the granting of subsidiary protection status.

Part V

Accelerated Procedures

Manifestly unfounded applications.

22. (1) A person seeking asylum in Malta in terms of article 8 shall be examined under accelerated procedures in accordance with this article when his application appears prima facie to be manifestly unfounded.

(2) Where the Commissioner is prima facie of the opinion that the application is manifestly unfounded, the Commissioner shall examine the application within three working days and shall, where applicable, recommend that the application is manifestly unfounded.

(3) The recommendation shall immediately be referred to the Chairman of the Board who shall examine and review the recommendation of the Commissioner within three working days.

(4) The decision of the Chairman of the Board on whether the application is manifestly unfounded shall be final and conclusive and, notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, no appeal or form of judicial review shall lie before the Board or before any other court of law.

(5) Where, following the procedures outlined in the previous provisions of this article, an application is rejected, the Chairman of the Board shall send a copy of the decision with the grounds therefor to the Minister and the Commissioner.

(6) Any interview with the applicant under the foregoing provisions of this article shall, where necessary, be conducted in private and with the assistance of an interpreter. The applicant shall also be informed of his right to obtain the services of a legal adviser to assist him during accelerated proceedings and to consult the High Commissioner.

(7) Where the application is considered not to be manifestly unfounded such application shall be examined under normal procedures as provided under this Act.

(8) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this article, if in the process of examining any application submitted in terms of article 8, the Commissioner arrives at the conclusion that the application should be dealt with under accelerated procedures on the basis of its being prima facie manifestly unfounded or because the applicant has found or could have found safe protection elsewhere in terms of the Convention and the Directives, the application shall be dealt with under accelerated procedures and the foregoing provisions of this article shall mutatis mutandis apply.

(9) If an applicant holds a travel document issued by a safe third country pursuant to the Convention and the Directives, he may be declared to have been safe from persecution in such State and his application shall be dealt with under accelerated procedures in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this article.

Inadmissible applications.

23. (1) The application of any person in Malta seeking recognition of refugee status and who falls under any one of the following conditions, shall be inadmissible if:

(a) another Member State has granted refugee status or is obliged to examine the particular application for asylum in terms of Council Regulation (EC) 343/03 of 18 February 2003 establishing the criteria and mechanisms for determining the Member State responsible for examining an asylum application lodged in one of the Member States by a third country national;

(b) a country which is not a Member State is considered as a first country of asylum for the applicant;

(c) a country which is not a Member State is considered as a safe third country for the applicant;

(d) the applicant is allowed to stay in Malta on some other grounds and as a result of this he has been granted a status comparable to the rights and benefits of the refugee status;

(e) the applicant is allowed to stay in Malta on some other grounds which protect him against refoulement pending the outcome of a procedure for the determination of his status;

(f) the applicant has lodged an identical application after a final decision;

(g) a dependant of the applicant lodges an application after consenting to have his case be part of an application made on his behalf, and there are no facts relating to the dependant person's situation which justify a separate application;

(h) has been recognized in a country which is not a member state as a refugee and can still avail himself of that protection or otherwise enjoys sufficient protection in that country, including benefiting from the principle of non-refoulement, and such person can be re-admitted to that country; or

(i) is a national or citizen of any safe country of origin listed in the Schedule or, if he is not a national or citizen thereof, he has a right of residence therein.

(2) The Minister may by regulations amend the list of countries specified in the Schedule, provided that only countries which in his opinion are countries of safe origin may be listed in the said Schedule, so however that the Minister shall remove from the said Schedule any country which in his opinion is no longer a safe country of origin."

Renumbering of articles 19 and 20 of the principal Act.

9. Articles 19 and 20 of the principal Act shall be renumbered as articles 24 and 25 thereof respectively.

Amendment of article 24 of the principal Act.

10. Article 24 of the principal Act as renumbered shall be amended as follows:

(a) in paragraph (f) of sub-article (1) thereof immediately after the words "permits to recognized refugees" there shall be added the words "and their family members, and persons enjoying subsidiary protection";

(b) immediately after paragraph (g) thereof there shall be added the following new paragraphs:

"(h) for implementing the provisions of the European Union Council Directives relating to refugees and ancillary matters;

(i) for providing that any person who contravenes or fails to comply with the provisions of any one or more regulations, shall be guilty of an offence against the regulations and for establishing the penalty for infringement of such regulations of a fine (multa) not exceeding two thousand and five hundred euro (€2,500) or imprisonment not exceeding three months, or of both such fine and imprisonment."

11. The Schedule to the principal Act shall be amended as follows:

Amendment of the Schedule to the principal Act.

(a) for the words "(Article 18A)" there shall be substituted the words "(Article 23)";

(b) the words "Bulgaria" and "Romania" shall be deleted; and

(c) immediately after the word "Uruguay" there shall be added the words "Member States of the European Union and European Economic Area".

12. In sub-article (1) of article 36 of the Immigration Act, for the words "for carrying the purposes or provisions of this Act into effect." there shall be substituted the words "for carrying the purposes or provisions of this Act into effect, and such power shall include that of providing that any person who contravenes or fails to comply with the provisions of any one or more regulations shall be guilty of an offence against such regulations and of establishing the penalty for such infringement which shall be a fine (multa) not exceeding two thousand and five hundred euro (€2,500) or imprisonment not exceeding three months, or both such fine and imprisonment."

Amendment of the Immigration Act. Cap. 217.

Objects and Reasons

The object of this Bill is to update the provisions of the Refugees Act and incorporate the provisions of Council Directive 2004/83/EC of the 29 April 2004 on minimum standards for the qualification and status of third country nationals or stateless persons as refugees or as persons who otherwise need international protection and Council Directive 2005/85/EC of 1 December 2005 on minimum standards on procedures in Member States for granting and withdrawing refugee status.
