

His Excellency

Lawrence Gonzi

Prime Minister of the Republic of Malta

Continuation of our joint efforts to establish a real partnership between the African Union and the European Union, and applying the principle of rotation between the two neighboring continents to host the Africa - Europe summit, the third summit will be held this year in Africa .

Since the tenth session of the conference of the Head of States and Governments of the African Union has agreed to hold the third summit Africa - Europe in Libya, we are pleased to invite your Excellency to participate in this summit, which will be held in Sirt on 29 and 30/11/2010.

We are fully confident Excellency that accepting the invitation and your personal participation in the summit confirms your country's commitment to strengthening the foundations of the strategic partnership between both parties in their respective areas designed to address the different challenges they face, and considering it as a framework for joint cooperation between both of them in all areas to achieve the aspirations of African and European peoples to live in peace, security and stability

Until we meet you in Libya, accept Excellency my highest consideration and respect.

Muammar El Ghaddafi

Leader of the Revolution
